

The Guthrie Theater - January 25, 2007

The Guthrie Presents

Fringe Encore at the Guthrie

From February 1 to 4, 85 actors, singers and dancers will turn the Dowling Studio into a frenzied festival of lively musicals, zany comedy, spoken word and ethnic dance. Each of these hits from the 2006 Minnesota Fringe Festival lasts only an hour, and all four plays run Saturday and Sunday, February 3 and 4.

Love in the Time of Rinderpest, presented by the Impossible Theater Group, offers action-packed comedy nonsense with an all-star cast (actors from Bedlam, Live Action Set, Park Square). Rival forensics battle renegade ghostbusters, folk-singing cardboard and Bruce Springsteen on a quest for true ignorance.

Feb. 2 at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 3 at 5:30 p.m. and Feb. 4 at 1 p.m.

Google: The Musical. Google is taking over the world — one thought at a time. With librarians, DJs and zombies, it's a brave new world in this entirely original darkly comedic electronic musical presented by The Imbecile Domicile.

Feb. 2 at 9:30 p.m., Feb. 3 at 3 p.m. and Feb. 4 at 7:30 p.m.

African Roads, American Streets offers an energetic, heart-felt production with powerful movements! Universal Dance Destiny presents this captivating mix of theater, street and cultural performers who unravel a true story through spoken word, hip hop, live drumming and African dance.

Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 3 at 1 p.m. and Feb. 4 at 3 p.m.

In La Vie Theatre's Wonderland Lewis Carroll's classic story Alice in Wonderland has been re-invented, re-imagined and re-mixed. In an outrageous nightclub, Alex crosses paths with Wonderland's most infamous and notorious citizens. A wild adventure awaits on the dance floor! This production contains nudity and strong language.

Feb. 1 at 9:30 p.m., Feb. 3 at 7:30 p.m. and Feb. 4 at 5:30 p.m.
