

MCDC.org. - July 16, 2006

Celebrating Liberian Culture: A Proud History of Culture and Traditions

Sponsored by The MultiCultural Development Center (MCDC), and co-sponsored by the Minnesota Private Colleges Council

Wednesday, July 26, 2006, at the Brooklyn Center Community Center , Constitution Hall

Keynote presentation and discussion lead by Dr. S. Momolu Getaweh, Sr.

Dr. Getaweh is an author, educator, attorney and former advisor to the Liberian President. He received his Ph.D. from Boston University in Massachusetts , where he studied sociology. He is a member of the Organization of Liberians in Minnesota and has published numerous articles covering the social and political issues facing Liberia and Liberian people.

Traditional Liberian Music and Dance presented by members of the Organization of Liberians in Minnesota

Interactive dance presentation by Edna Stevens Talton, a Liberian native and founder of the Young Audiences of Minnesota dance company. This performance will take you through the evolution of traditional African dance to the development of modern Urban Hip Hop. Prepare to move your body with this phenomenal dance troupe as you personally connect with traditional Liberian dances and hypnotizing drum beats. Get ready to shake your hips!